Almighty God,

We keep in our prayers the family and friends of James Foxen whose funeral takes place on 24th May at St Nicolas', Chute and of Simon Le Bon whose funeral service takes place on 25th May at St Mary's, Great Bedwyn. May their souls and the souls of all the departed, rest in peace and rise in glory.

We pray for the repose of the soul of Merry Pim, who died peacefully on 2nd May 2022. Merry was a much loved member of St Andrew's Church, Collingbourne Ducis. She was a key member of the flower team, cheerfully took her turn with church cleaning, and always turned out on a chilly day to help clean up the churchyard, pulling up weeds with gusto! We pray for her sons, Robin and Alistair, and their children at this time.

A memorial service will take place at St Andrew's Church on Thursday 28 July at 2pm.

On Saturday 14th May we celebrate the marriage of Simon Ponting and Melanie Cole at St Michael & All Angels, Shalbourne.
God Bless soon to be Mr & Mrs Ponting and their families on this very special day.

A few months ago in Chute I was talking to a villager who referred to 'Big Tony.' It took me a while to realise who he was talking about and how the nickname was so very appropriate. Tony Peace lived service to his local community and to our great gain, to the church. I remember sitting with him in Diocesan Synod years before joining this team as Rector, both of us nodding off to a boring presentation. At every level of church, he added his relaxed energy and gentle intelligence to serving in the way that best suited his talents. He bashfully dismissed words of praise and had great humility. To those who knew him, he was a chuckler, able to see humour in life and joy in the world. A great example to us all and a great loss. May he rest in peace!
