God our redeemer,

Revd Ann Massey asks that you pray for the conflict in Sudan to cease but also for the people of Nzara. In particular, South Sudan is suffering from an economic crisis mainly due to the war in Sudan preventing the passage of goods out of South Sudan, such as oil. There is also disruption from climate change in South Sudan and now a measles outbreak in Nzara which is persisting. The measles outbreak is devastating as it is killing many under two-year-olds and some elderly. So far, the children of St Timothy's have remained safe.

Tidcombe Concert Series 2024

We are thrilled to announce the second concert in this year's Tidcombe Concert Series:

Saturday 15th June 2024, 6pm: Naima Bock

Naima is one of the great rising stars on the singer-songwriter scene in London. She formed her first band, Goat Girl, when she was just fifteen, and spent six years touring the world. Born in Glastonbury to a Brazilian Father and Greek Mother, her music draws on family, on the earth, as well as on her rich musical inheritance, with influences from her experience as an archaeologist, a gardener, and a walker.

Her debut solo album, Giant Palm, was released in 2022.

There are also a few tickets available for the Patrick Duff Concert on Saturday 11th May 6pm.

The concerts will be followed, as usual, by drinks in Flint Cottage Barn or Tidcombe Manor. Tickets are £15 each (£5 for children)
